

Windham Country Club

Windham Country Club is an 18-hole public golf course located in the scenic Northern Catskills of New York State.

Designed in 1928 by Len Raynor from famed Cooperstown, the course was remodeled in 1964. Golf Digest rates Windham C.C. 3 1/2 stars, and a "must" play. The course is scenic and challenging. The blue tees rate a modest 70.4 with a slope of 120. At 6005 yards, the course plays tougher than expected. Women, seniors and juniors love the forward tees at 4,651 yards—the rating is 69.2 with a slope of 112.
